

Douglas LeMaster, Jr. joined the MarkleBank Board of Directors in 1982. In 2005, he also became a member of the Board of Directors of Independent Alliance Banks (IAB), the holding company for MarkleBank and Grabill Bank, where he serves on the IAB Audit Committee.

Doug is a graduate of Huntington University with a degree in Business Administration and Economics. He is a retired grain company owner and former commodity trader and member of the Chicago Board of Trade. He has also been a member of the Indiana Grain & Feed Association and currently serves as a Director of the Horeb Cemetery Association.

Doug and his wife, Anita, have three daughters and four grandchildren. The LeMasters attend The Chapel in Fort Wayne.