

Michael C. Marhenke

Michael C. Marhenke was named the first President and Chief Executive Officer of Independent Alliance Banks, Inc. (IAB) in June of 2005. Independent Alliance Banks, Inc. is a two bank holding company that includes both Grabill Bank and MarkleBank. Marhenke also has served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Grabill Bank since June 1, 2004.

With more than 30 years of banking experience, Marhenke served as Grabill Bank's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer from 2000 to 2004. He joined the bank in 1998 as Vice President of Business Development. Previously, Marhenke served as President of Norwest Bank in Bluffton, Indiana.

Marhenke earned his bachelor's degree in business administration with a major in accounting from Indiana University. He is also a graduate of the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

Marhenke currently serves on the Advisory Council of the American Bankers Association (ABA) and as a Constituent Director of the Indiana Bankers Association on the ABA Membership Council. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the New Haven/Adams Township Park Department, treasurer of the David Hefner International Exchange Fund, member of the Northeast Indiana Regional Marketing Council and New Haven United Methodist Church.

Marhenke and his wife, Melanie, are the parents of three daughters. Meghan is married to Bill Skelton and is a NW Allen County Schools teacher, Mallory is a student at IPFW, and Meredith is a student at Indiana University in Bloomington.